

1270

Louis IX of France died at Carthage while on crusade

1270

8th Crusade

The fall (in 1268) of JAFFA and ANTIOCH to the Moslems caused LOUIS IX to undertake the Eighth Crusade which was cut short by his death before Tunis (1270)

1270

France

Louis IX sets out on the LAST Crusade

1270-1285

France

A Capetian King

PHILIP III was king

AD1270-1300

The GILF Cliff Dwellings in New Mexico dating from AD1270-1300 are considered to be MOGOLLON.

They share qualities with the ANASAZI sites like Cliff Palace (Mesa Verde) and with MOGOLLON cave dwellings in Mexico. The MOGOLLON were a separate people (a mountain people)

1270

1912 Dates J-BK

TUNIS

In 1270 during the 7th CRUSADE
Louis IX encamped in Tunis in northern part of Africa.

Oct. 30, 1270

End of the last Crusade

1270

8th Crusade